

CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF HIGHER EDUCATION
Educational Policy Studies & Practice Department

Fall 2017 Graduate Course Offerings

- HED 565 001 Tribal Colleges R P Harvill Bldg. 240
Dr. Mary Fox Tuesdays & Thursdays 11:00 AM-12:15 PM
This course provides an introduction to the tribal colleges, which includes a discussion of their history, mission, governance, organization, finance, curriculum, and current challenges. It also includes student characteristics and support services, faculty characteristics, support services, roles, responsibilities and evaluation, and an introduction to assessment of learning in the tribal college.
- HED 601 001 Higher Education in the United States COE 318
Dr. Gary Rhoades Mondays 7:00-9:30 PM
The scope of higher education in the United States; brief survey of historical developments and philosophic bases, public policy issues at the state and federal level; types of institutions and their purposes; characteristics of faculty, students and curricula.
- HED 602 Research Design in Higher Education COE 311
Dr. Jenny Lee Wednesdays 7:00PM-9:30 PM
This course is designed to prepare graduate students at any level for the process of research writing, including writing literature reviews, constructing research questions, and designing studies. In addition, this course will allow students to gain the skills necessary to critically evaluate the design of published research in their respective areas of expertise.
- HED 611 001 Statistical Analysis in Higher Education COE 310
Thomas Murray Tuesdays 4:15-6:45 PM
In this course, students will be able to understand key statistical concepts to: (1) formulate and test relevant research hypotheses; (2) conduct rigorous data analysis; (3) interpret results; (4) report and present research findings; and (5) evaluate existing quantitative research.
- HED 617 001 Student Personnel Services in Higher Education Highland Commons B116
Dr. Amanda Kraus Wednesdays 4:15-6:45 PM
Student personnel services, philosophy, history, administrative procedures, representative programs, current trends.
- HED 634 001 Sociology in Community Colleges COE 320
Dr. Regina Deil-Amen Tuesdays & Thursdays 12:30-1:45 PM
The purpose of this course is to process your Student Affairs internships. Internships will provide an opportunity to diversify your professional experience and apply the theory and knowledge you learn in class to a professional setting. This class will meet weekly to engage in critical dialogue about your internship experiences. Each week you will focus on a different topical area and discuss professional trends, issues, and questions together.

HED 696C 001 Topics in Higher Education: Introduction to Comparative Higher Education

(Please enroll in 3 units)

Dr. Jenny Lee

Tuesdays 4:15-6:45 PM.

COE 316

Comparative Higher Education is intended to provide a broad cross-cultural perspective on important issues related to higher education. The course will focus both on broad topics such as university reform, national and international policies, governance of universities, student mobility, academic profession, as well as on key world regions and countries

HED 696C 002 Topics in HED: Qualitative Methods in Education

(Please enroll in 3 units)

Dr. Regina Deil-Amen

Mondays 4:15-6:45 PM

COE 502

Introduction to theory and methods of conducting research through extended participant observation in school or community settings; field work, ethnography, case study, qualitative methods.

HED 696C 003 Topics in HED: TBA

(Please note to enroll in 3 units)

TBA

Thursdays 4:15-6:45 p.m.

TBD

Please contact Liz Gaxiola, Graduate Coordinator, at egaxiola@email.arizona.edu or 520.626.7313, if you have any questions.

