- HED 627 001 Capstone: Contemporary Issues in Student Affairs*
Dr. Amanda Kraus Wednesday 4:15P-6:45PM Highland Commons B116
This course is designed to serve as a capstone experience for master's students in the last semester of their program, entering the profession of student affairs. Students will explore contemporary and professional issues with a critical lens. Course readings and discussions will encourage students to raise questions about professional practice, issues and trends. Students will have the opportunity to examine an issue of interest and present their findings in a professional symposium. We will often dialogue with guest speakers to gain firsthand insight into the profession.
- HED 629 001 Whiteness and Higher Education*
Dr. Nolan Cabrera Mondays 4:15P-6:45PM COE 320
When conversations arise regarding 'diversity' or 'race,' this usually implies a focus on People of Color. Generally absent is the subject of Whiteness. Within this course, students will explore the historical construction of Whiteness. Additionally, they will examine how this concept has evolved, been challenged, and continually reconstructed over the past three hundred years. Students in this course will gain an understanding of key concepts within Critical Whiteness Studies as well as the relevance of Whiteness to education. Finally, students will become engaged in several of the unresolved and ongoing issues regarding Whiteness, race, and education.
- HED 630 001 Higher Education Values/Consciousness/Professional Practice*
Dr. Jenny Lee Online but will meet three times during semester Hybrid
This seminar introduces readings on issues concerning values, consciousness, and mindfulness in education. The course seeks to bring awareness to how our values shape our everyday lives as students, teachers, and leaders in the education context.
Meeting dates: April 12, 19, 26, 7-930 pm in COE 311.
- HED 679 001 American Indian Higher Education*
Dr. Mary Fox Tuesdays & Thursdays 11:00 AM-12:15PM Harvill 222
Development of higher education for American Indians/Alaskan natives from the earliest efforts to contemporary times. Issues and their implications for the education of American Indians in institutions and agencies of higher education. Emphasis on tribally controlled colleges and universities, and the development of American Indian studies programs in higher education institutions.
